

Maramba Primary School Chaplaincy Services

Maramba Primary School has received Federal Government funding to provide the services of a School Chaplain 2 days per week. The Chaplain journeys with students listening and providing compassionate support, helping students connect with their own inner resources.

Debbie Beales is the Chaplain appointed at Maramba Primary School she has a Master of Counselling Degree and is a member of The Australian Counselling Association and The Psychotherapy and Counselling Federation of Australia. If you would like your child to see the chaplain for individual counselling or group work, during school hours, your written permission is required. When the Chaplain receives this form, you will be contacted to arrange a meeting to discuss your concerns. If you need more information, please feel free to contact Andrew Groh or Sue Peterken: 9796 7150.
